

National Early Music Association - Membership

Members of Nema receive a magazine Early Music Performer and will be able to access the NEMA database, which will have all the information previously listed in the Early Music Yearbook. Your membership will be valid from the date until the end of that calendar year or from the 1st January to 31st December if already a member. John Bence is the Nema contact for applications. You may print this page and append your details and send to the address below:-
